Obituary

Sister Dora Lee Norris, was born to proud parents, Rhoda Brown and Edward Johnson on March 6, 1904, in Glouster, Mississippi. She attended public schools in this community and received her literary training there.

In her early life she moved to New Orleans, Louisiana where she received the Lord in the power of salvation and the gift of the Holy Ghost. She was a devoted follower of the Late Bishop James Feltus.

In late 1945, Sister Norris moved to San Francisco, California where she served faithfully at the Emmanuel Church of God in Christ under the pastorage of the late Bishop E. E. Hamilton. Later she united with the late Bishop Cleaver. Sister Norris served in many areas of the Church to include president of the Home and Foreign Mission Board and as a member of the Deaconess Board. She was a lover of children and young people and a faithful prayer warrior, giving freely of her time and money. Her spirit of motherly love and kindness will live long in the hearts of the saints of God.

After a long illness, Sister Norris departed this life on Saturday, March 31, 1984.

She leaves to mourn her passing: a loving son, Mr. John F. Norris of San Francisco, CA; a brother, Mr. Albert Edwards of Glouster, Mississippi; a nephew, Mr. J. W. Williams of New Orleans, La.; nieces, Jessie Lewis, Annie Anderson, Branda and Gail Shepherd of Baton Rouge, La. and Mary Selman of San Francisco. Additional nieces and relatives in Mississippi and Louisiana along with many other friends and the loving Church Family of the Little Chapel Church of God in Christ, pastored by Elder Joe King.
